

THE KING'S HEAD

MEMBERS CLUB

MEMBERS & GUESTS POLICY

The King's Head is a private members club. We do not allow members of the public entry at any time unless they are guests of an accompanying member or have organised a visit to the club through the proper means.

For any membership referrals please contact events@thekingshead-london.com

KEY MEMBERSHIP GUIDELINES

1. Membership is non-transferable. Friends and family are not entitled to use another person's membership.
2. A member attending the club must have a valid membership. Members are welcome to bring up to 5 guests with them to the club per day without a reservation. Additional guests are at the discretion of management. All guests are bound by house rules and their behaviour within the club is the responsibility of the member hosting them. Any breach of house rules may result in the cancellation of one's membership without refund.
3. Any guests must be accompanied by their hosting member unless pre-organised via management. Members should ensure their guests leave when they leave.
4. Management reserve the right to refuse entry to a member, or their guests.
5. The Kings Head reserves the right to conduct random searches upon entry.
6. The management have the right to revoke a membership at any time.
7. Membership fees are non-refundable.
8. The following are strictly prohibited within the club and would lead to revocation of membership:
 - a. Drug taking or possession of drugs.
 - b. Violence.
 - c. Verbal abuse to other guests or staff.
 - d. Theft.
 - e. Intentional damage to fixtures and/or fittings (any damage will be billed to the guest or member at fault).
9. We have a responsibility to our neighbours and will not permit loud or disruptive behaviour outside the club. Noise should be kept to a minimum.
10. All bills must be settled at point of sale or before leaving. Any unpaid bills will be processed by management on the same day.
11. No children are permitted in the club without express permission of the management and if allowed, must be accompanied by an adult at all times. Minors are not permitted in the venue after 8pm.
